About Conference

The National Conference on “Indian Knowledge System: Roots, Relevance and Revival” aims to rediscover India’s vast intellectual heritage and highlight its enduring value in the modern world. From ancient sciences, mathematics, philosophy, and health traditions to holistic education, sustainability, and ethical living, the Indian Knowledge System offers timeless principles that continue to guide contemporary society. This conference brings together scholars, educators, researchers, and learners to explore how these foundational ideas can be understood in their original context, interpreted for today’s needs, and revived for future generations. It is an invitation to reflect on our civilizational wisdom and integrate it meaningfully into modern thought, policy, and practice.
